children's lives through quality education and support

About us

Mera India Mera Adhikar is a registered non-governmental organization (NGO) founded in (2013) initiated and run by a group of passionate and committed youth from the slums. The organization is dedicated to improve the lives of underprivileged children living in slums by providing them with quality education and opportunities for upliftment. Through various programs and initiatives, Mera India, Mera Adhikar aims to break the cycle of poverty.

Bridging gaps for equal learning and opportunities

Voice of the Team

This year has been incredibly successful for us as we have made significant strides in connecting with families and children. Our holistic approach to child development, encompassing education, various activities, youth sessions, computer education, and sports sessions, has yielded positive results. We are particularly proud of our expanded outreach to underprivileged children, furthering our mission of making a difference in their lives.

Throughout the year, our initiatives experienced a significant boost in support, with new backers joining our cause. This increased support allowed us to effectively execute our carefully planned activities, resulting in a series of positive outcomes. It is deeply gratifying to witness the tangible impact on numerous children's lives, as they are now reaping the benefits of our collective efforts. These children are experiencing newfound hope and transformative changes in their lives.

Celebrating a decade of dedicated service to our community, we have made a profound impact in the realm of education by empowering underprivileged children living in slums. Our unwavering commitment has not only reached numerous children but also enabled them to pursue their educational dreams. We have flourished as a cohesive team, and our mission has inspired countless volunteers who have witnessed our impactful work on the ground. Together, we continue to make a lasting difference.

Our Mission & Vision

Our Mission

Our mission is to empower underprivileged children in slums through education, aiming to establish 20 centers in the next 5 years and impact over 10,000 lives. We passionately believe that education is the catalyst for breaking the cycle of poverty, offering marginalized youth a pathway to a brighter and sustainable future.

Our Vision

- Empowering slum children through quality education.
- Fostering a supportive and nurturing environment to encourage personal growth and development.
- Bridging the educational divide between privileged and underprivileged children.
- Instilling values of compassion, tolerance, and inclusivity in the youth.

PROJECT ENLIGHTENMENT

UNVEILING THE FUTURE

Project Enlightenment is an initiative by "Mera India Mera Adhikar" aimed at establishing educational centers for underprivileged children residing in slums. In last 10 years. Thousands of children & youngsters have benefited from various project enlightenment activities over the previous ten years. Currently, MIMA has two centres in Delhi. The organisation first established a centre in a slum. Then these centers provide Pre admission and after school classes to provide quality education, essential life skills, and holistic development opportunities

PROJECT ENLIGHTENMENT

Bridging the Gap & Breaking barriers

Project Enlightenment, dedicated to empowering underprivileged children, prioritizes foundational knowledge for academic growth. This year, through our innovative approach of Survey, Test, and Teach, we've witnessed significant progress. Hundreds of students demonstrated remarkable improvement in their basic study skills, mitigating the risk of dropout. Our commitment to provide a strong educational base ensures that these children are equipped with essential tools for success. Through Project Enlightenment, we aspire to create a positive impact, breaking down educational barriers and giving worthy young minds a better future.

NEED

Insufficient foundational education in underprivileged children causes high dropout rates, perpetuating disadvantage and limiting socioeconomic mobility in a vicious cycle.

PROJECT NAVODAYA

FOOTBALL FOR EDUCATION

Project Navodaya, an initiative by MIMA NGO, is dedicated to provide football training to underprivileged children. By engaging them in sports and education, the project aims to divert them from wrong and unhealthy habits. This programme now trains roughly 100 youngsters, and the ratio of Girls are greater than 60%. Through this program, children receive expert coaching, fostering their physical fitness, teamwork, and discipline. Football becomes a positive outlet, instilling values of perseverance and determination, ultimately steering them away from negative influences. Alongside the sporting activities, Navodaya also emphasizes the significance of education, inspiring these young individuals to excel academically. By combining sports and learning, the project empowers these children with essential life skills, paving the way for a brighter future and a path towards success.

PROJECT NAVODAYA

our initiative witnessed a remarkable start with the registration of over 100 students for the upcoming session. Notably, more than half of the participants were girls, reflecting a commendable gender-inclusive approach. The primary focus has been on providing foundational football training to nurture their skills. Additionally, our students actively engaged in over 100 matches, fostering collaboration with various organizations and significantly enhancing their confidence. Highlighting our commitment to empowering girls, a group of our female participants attended the Girls for Girls (G4G) summit in Goa last year, contributing to their holistic development and broadening their perspectives.

PROJECT DURI

(Digitalized Unreached India)

DIGITAL EDUCATION FOR ALL

Project DURI, initiated by MIMA NGO, aims to bridge the educational gap for children and youth in slums by offering digital education and computer classes. Through this transformative initiative, underprivileged individuals gain access to modern learning tools, computer skills, and technological literacy, essential for their personal growth and future employability. Trained instructors impart knowledge in a supportive and inclusive environment, empowering the participants to thrive in the digital era. By fostering a tech-savvy generation, Project DURI fosters socio-economic upliftment, enabling these young minds to break barriers, pursue their dreams, and contribute positively to society, overcoming the challenges of their circumstances.

PROJECT DURI

Bridging the Gap & Breaking barriers

This year, our dedicated efforts were directed towards empowering underprivileged children with essential computer skills. Many of these children, who had never before had the opportunity to interact with a computer, were filled with excitement as they experienced this technology for the first time. Over 60 children successfully learned fundamental computer skills, enabling them to perform daily tasks such as creating presentations, charts, and managing schoolwork efficiently. This initiative not only provided them with practical skills but also opened up new avenues for their education and future opportunities. The joy on their faces as they embraced the digital world exemplifies the positive impact of bridging the digital divide for these young learners.

NEED

Access to computer education at an early age enhances children's curiosity and skills.

Unfortunately, children in slums often lack the resources and opportunities to learn computers, limiting their educational prospects.

PROJECT ARTSHALA

LEARNING BY DOING INITIATIVE

Project Artshala, an initiative by MIMA NGO, embodies a "learning by doing" approach, fostering student development through diverse activities. These engagements serve as catalysts, nurturing creativity, boosting academic performance, and cultivating essential life skills. Students not only enhance their leadership abilities but also develop teamwork, self-confidence, decision-making prowess, and moral values. Through hands-on experiences, Artshala empowers participants to shape their holistic growth, creating an environment where personal development is as integral as academic achievement. By blending practical activities with education, the project aims to mold well-rounded individuals who can confidently navigate challenges and contribute positively to society.

PROJECT ARTSHALA

Bridging the Gap & Breaking barriers

This year, we've dedicated ourselves to nurturing the creativity and skills of our students through various engaging activities and arts sessions. Our summer vacation camp featured exciting arts and crafts workshops and fun games to ignite the children's imaginations. Additionally, we've been proactive in fostering their growth by organizing weekly Saturday sessions filled with innovative activities and games. These initiatives are geared towards honing their abilities and encouraging their creative thinking, providing a well-rounded educational experience that goes beyond traditional classroom learning. Our commitment is to empower our students to explore their full potential and develop into well-rounded individuals.

NEED

Underprivileged children often lack opportunities to engage in enriching activities and games, hindering skill development compared to their peers in private schools, perpetuating educational disparities and limiting their potential.

Sahiba

Sahiba, a student at an MCD school, overcame challenging circumstances and found confidence through participation in Artshala activities. Her academic performance improved by 30%, boosting both her studies and self-esteem.

PROJECT SHASHAKT

JOINING HANDS FOR CHANGE

Project Shashakt, an initiative by MIMA NGO, aims to connect volunteers from colleges, institutes, corporates, and individuals with busy weekday schedules. Conducted on weekends, our street classes focus on bridging the gap between these volunteers and underprivileged children. Through diverse activities held in locations such as parks, we strive to engage and educate the less fortunate. The goal is to not only impart knowledge but also inspire a passion for learning. By choosing unconventional spaces, like parks, we create an inclusive environment where education becomes an accessible and enjoyable experience for both volunteers and the underprivileged kids we serve.

PROJECT SHASHAKT

Bridging the Gap & Breaking barriers

This year, our initiative aimed to enhance the lives of underprivileged children in slums, fostering partnerships with organizations like Provana and Tata Trust. Collaborating with college students and individuals, we created engaging sessions and activities. Witnessing the children's enthusiasm and anticipation for each weekend class was heartening. Our volunteers, fueled by new ideas, contributed to the success of the program. Notably, Mr. Amit from Tata Trust exemplified dedication by mentoring five children from the slums. His commitment underscored the transformative impact of collective efforts in providing a more attractive and fruitful future for these deserving youngsters.

NEED

Passionate individuals, including corporate employees and college students, eager to teach and raise awareness for underprivileged children face limited opportunities due to their busy schedules, hindering personal exploration and impactful contributions in needy areas.

MIMA YOUTH CLUB

Youth Club is our transformative initiative, empowering underprivileged children year-round. Through diverse tasks and sessions, we nurture creativity, teamwork, self-confidence, and leadership skills. By fostering a positive environment, we guide these young minds to enjoy learning and cultivate essential qualities. Our focus extends beyond the individual; we aim to break the chains of poverty. Through skill-building and holistic development, we envision these children becoming catalysts for positive change in the next generation. Youth Club is not just an initiative; it's a beacon of hope, breaking the cycle of poverty and creating a brighter future for all.

This year, they actively engaged in over 100 activities and generously hosted a Christmas fest for 100 underprivileged children, spreading joy and warmth during the festive season.

Our Volunteers Speaks

MR. AMIT

TATA TRUST

I'm thrilled by the dedication and impact of my organization. Joining their initiative, I witnessed a transformative chain of change. Students not only learned but also became teachers, fostering a remarkable cycle of growth. Volunteering was a truly enjoyable and fulfilling experience, contributing to a positive ripple effect in the community.
